Direct Selling Company Affidavit and Agreement of Voluntary Assumption for Collection and Remittance of Sales or Use Tax to the Department of Revenue

State of: _____

County of: _____

COMES NOW _____ , and deposes and states as follows:

_____ a direct sales company, has direct sellers (distributors) in South Dakota for whom it wishes to collect the South Dakota sales and use tax.

I, _____ (name of officer) as _____ (title) of the aforementioned company, have authority to enter into a binding agreement with the State of South Dakota.

By signing this affidavit, the company agrees to:

- Collect, report, and remit South Dakota state and applicable municipal sales tax for its direct sellers.
- Collect sales tax based on the suggested retail selling price, plus delivery, or on the actual selling price, plus delivery, when the seller provides documentation to the company on the actual selling price.
- Compute the sales tax based on the location the company delivers the products to, as described in the Sales Tax Facts, Direct Selling Companies.

The company understands this permission may be revoked by the State of South Dakota without a need to show cause and without notice.

This agreement supersedes any prior direct selling company agreements the company may have with the South Dakota Department of Revenue
