SD/IA Border Tax Seminars Offered in Sioux Falls

(PIERRE, SD) - Two seminars being held in Sioux Falls next month will offer helpful state tax information to area business owners who conduct business in both South Dakota and Iowa.

The South Dakota Department of Revenue and Regulation and the Iowa Department of Revenue are hosting the Border Tax Seminars which are scheduled for Thurs., June 4, 2009 at the Morningside Community Center, 2400 S. Bahnson.

A Sales and Use Tax Seminar is set from 8:30 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. with a Tax Seminar for Construction Contractors scheduled for 1:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. Topics to be covered at the seminars include how and when to apply for a sales tax license; when to apply Iowa vs. South Dakota tax; exemptions from sales and use taxes; agricultural products and production; how contractors' excise tax applies to South Dakota and Iowa contractors; exempt entities; local taxes; use tax; and filing returns.

Both seminars are offered free of charge. Interested individuals can register by calling the South Dakota Department of Revenue and Regulation at 1-800-TAX (829)-9188 or on-line at <https://apps.sd.gov/applications/RV23Education/classes.aspx>.
